

Е. Лихачёва
Eng: A. Osipov

When my Heart Aches (Утешаюсь Господом)

T. Rusavuk

(♩ = 65)

mp

1. When my heart aches with pain so deep, and I must fall and cry so bit - ter - ly I can't find com - fort a - ny - where, I bring my ach - ing heart to Cal - va - ry. When my life is a sepa - rate world, and there is none to of - fer sym - pa - thy, when there are storms that ne - ver end, I bring my ach - ing heart to Cal - va - ry.

Refrain:

For my dear Lord lived on this earth, he bore great pain and suf - fered pa - tient - ly. If He's with me, I can go on,

if I will bring my heart to Cal - va - ry. mp 2. When I am pow'r - less to es - cape, the sud - den stab of grief and a - go - ny, I will find strength to car - ry on, if I will bring my heart to Cal - va - ry. When I must turn and walk a - way, for - e - ver leav - ing some - thing dear to me, and I know

22

24

I can-not re-turn, I bring my ach-ing heart to Cal - va-ry. Refrain: For my dear Lord

28

lived on this earth, He bore great pain and suf-fered pa - tient-ly. If He's with me, 32

I can go on, If I will bring my heart to Cal - va - ry.

f

3. And if my hopes and dreams so bright, will fade a - way so dis - ap - point - ing - ly, I will not feel the emp - ti - ness, be - cause I bring my heart to

37

mp

Cal - va - ry. Refrain: For my dear Lord lived on this earth,

42

He bore great pain and suf - fered pa - tient-ly. If He's with me,

45

I can go on, if I will bring me heart to Cal - va - ry.